

Manners

Lesson 1

Warm up

What customs do you know?

hug

high five hand shake

1. _____.

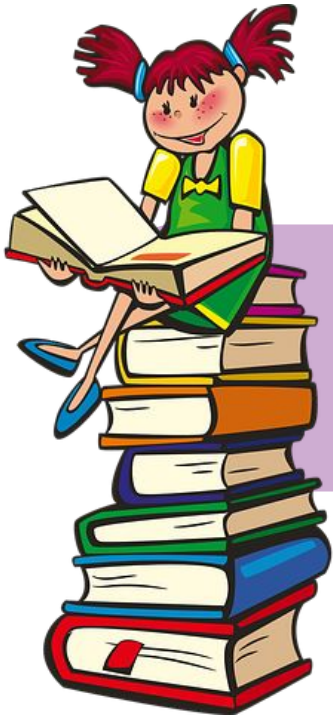

2. _____.

3. _____.

Questions:

1. Match the words in the box to the correct pictures.
2. Which customs are part of your culture?
3. In what situations do you use them?

Vocabulary

New Words: Part 1

Match the words to the pictures!

manners

ask for permission

apologize

take turns

1

2

3

4

Check your answers!

1

apologize

2

manners

3 take turns

4 ask for permission

New Words: Part 2

Match the words to the pictures!

patient

share

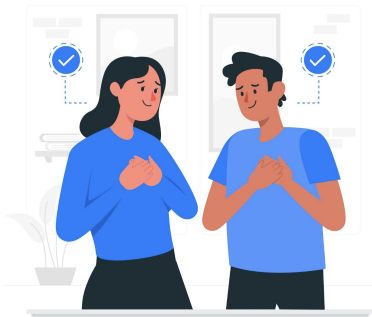

forgive

greeting

5

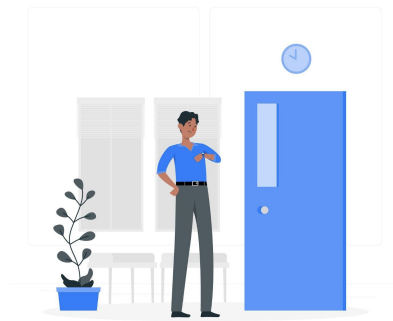

6

7

8

Check your answers!

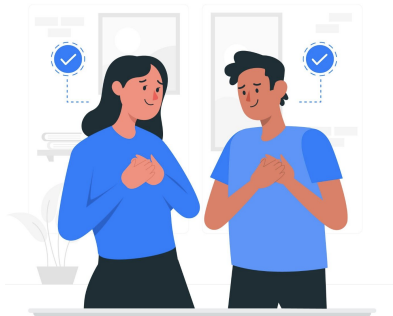

5

share

6

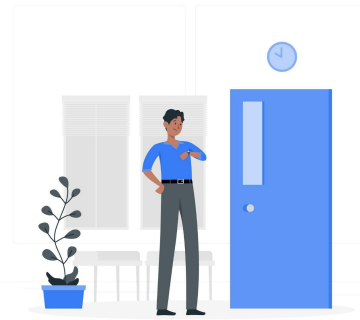

forgive

7 greeting

8 patient

Vocabulary Intro

Manners

Having good manners means being respectful and considerate of others.

Some examples of good manners are saying “please” and “thank you” and covering your mouth when you cough.

1. What are some good manners in your culture?
2. What is an example of good manners that you saw today?

Ask for permission

Asking for permission means saying “please” or asking if you can do something.

An example is asking your parents if you can be excused from the dinner table.

1. What are some words you use to ask for permission?
2. What was the last thing you asked for permission to do?

Apologize

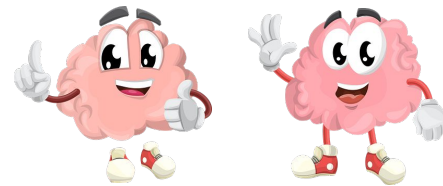

Apologizing is what you do when you have done something wrong and want to say you are sorry.

An example is telling your friend you are sorry that you were late to their birthday party.

1. What are some ways to apologize?
2. Have you ever had to make a difficult apology? What was it for?

Take turns

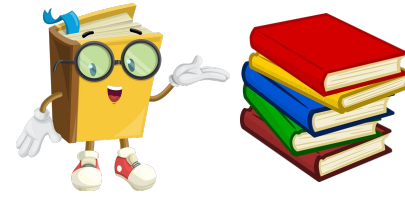

Taking turns means letting people go one at a time.

Some examples are playing hopscotch or giving class presentations.

1. What are some games that require taking turns?
2. What are some things you do in everyday life where you have to wait for your turn?

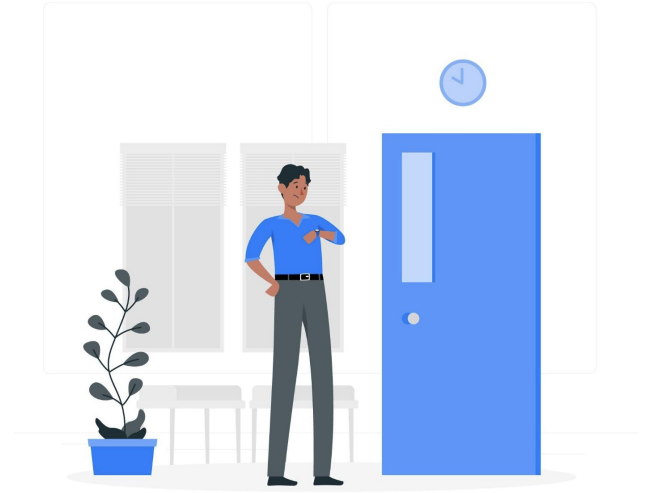

Patient

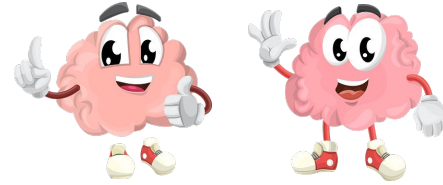

Being patient means waiting for something without getting annoyed or angry.

An example is waiting for an appointment to start without complaining.

1. Are you a patient person? Why or why not?
2. What are some situations that require a lot of patience?

Share

Sharing is letting someone else use an item that you are also using.

An example is bringing a ball to the playground and letting other kids play with it.

1. What are some things that are fun to share?
2. Do you think sharing is always a good thing? Why or why not?

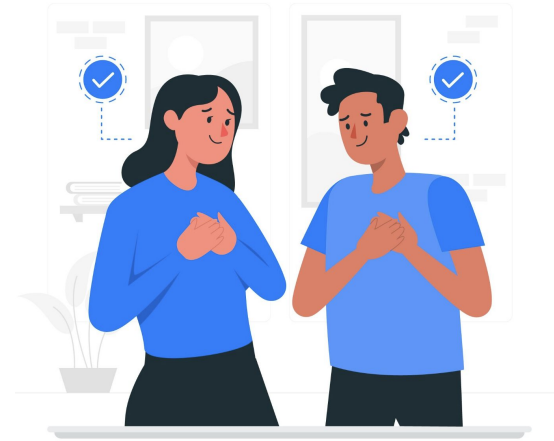

Forgive

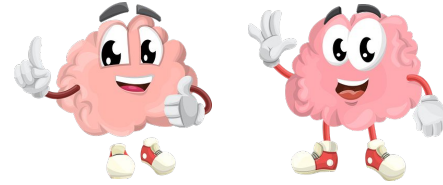

When you forgive someone, you accept their apology or stop being upset with them.

An example is not staying mad at a friend for doing something rude.

1. Is it always easy to forgive someone?
2. Can you think of a time you had to forgive a friend for something?

Greeting

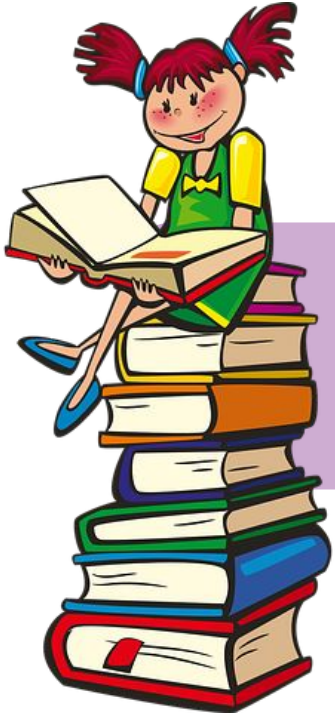

A greeting is what you say or do when you meet someone.

An example is waving and saying “hello” when your friend arrives at your house.

1. What is a common greeting in your culture?
2. How do you and your friends greet each other?
Do you have a special handshake?

Vocabulary Practice

Complete the sentences

1. He has good  at the lunch table.

2. I need to  before I can play outside.

3. Please  for forgetting to do your chores.

4. We need to  so everyone can play the game.

Check your answers!

1. He has good manners at the lunch table.
2. I need to ask for permission before I can play outside.
3. Please apologize for forgetting to do your chores.
4. We need to take turns so everyone can play the game.

Complete the sentences

5. The boys  the blocks in the playroom.

6. It feels good to  someone after they apologize.

7. My favorite  is to say hello and wave my hand.

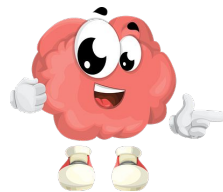

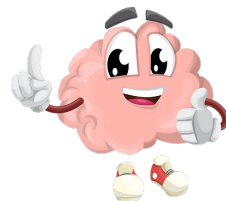

8. She is very  , even when she waits for a long time.

Check your answers!

5. The boys share the blocks in the playroom.
6. It feels good to forgive someone after they apologize.
7. My favorite greeting is to say hello and wave my hand.
8. She is very patient, even when she waits for a long time.

Answer the questions

1. Can you explain what manners are?
2. What are some examples of good manners?
3. Why is it good manners to take turns?
4. In what situations do you have to ask for permission?
5. What do you say when someone gives you permission?
6. When do you use a greeting?
7. Do you like to share your belongings with others?
8. What can you do to improve your manners?

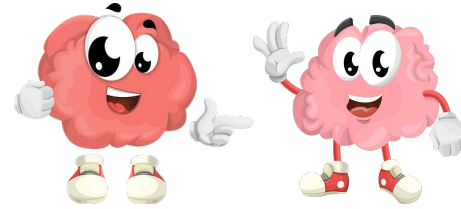

Watch the video

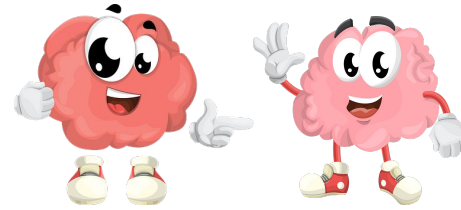

Watch the video!

Saying Sorry and Taking Turns 🤝 Good Manners for Kids

True or false?

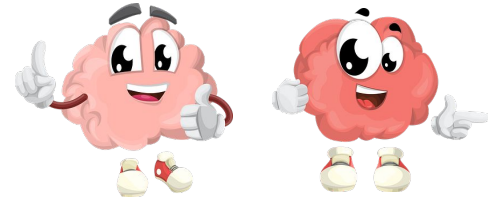

1. Having good manners is very important when interacting with the people around us.
2. Good manners are a way to kindly communicate with other people.
3. Being kind to others is a way of showing them how smart you are.
4. Being polite and having good manners are the same thing.
5. Saying I'm sorry is a way to ask for permission.
6. When we do something wrong, we should share with that person.
7. If we don't learn to take turns, there can be problems.
8. If we wait our turn, we won't have fun on the slide.

Check your answers!

1. Having good manners is very important when interacting with the people around us. T
2. Good manners are a way to kindly communicate with other people. T
3. Being kind to others is a way of showing them how smart you are. F
4. Being polite and having good manners are the same thing. T
5. Saying I'm sorry is a way to ask for permission. F
6. When we do something wrong, we should share with that person. F
7. If we don't learn to take turns, there can be problems. T
8. If we wait our turn, we won't have fun on the slide. F

Video questions

1. Why is it important to have good manners?
2. What are some ways to apologize when you make a mistake?
3. What are some good things about taking turns?

Work with a partner to come up with as many answers for each question as you can!

Finding good manners

Good or Bad Manners?

Decide if the situation below show good or bad manners.

1. Jennie greets Tina with a high five.
2. Bill accidentally pushes someone and says nothing.
3. Martha asks her mom for permission to play games.
4. Bonnie complains while she waits for her turn.

Check your answers!

Great job!

1. Jennie greets Tina with a high five.

2. Bill accidentally pushes someone and says nothing.

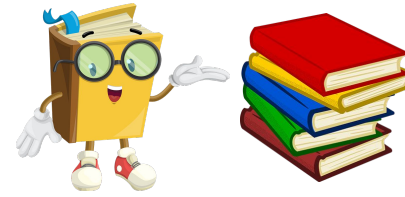

3. Martha asks her mom for permission to play games.

4. Bonnie complains while she waits for her turn.

Good or Bad Manners?

5. Mary apologizes and Louise forgives her.
6. Sam shares his books with his siblings.
7. Terry takes Mike's car without asking for permission.
8. Bob cuts the line and does not wait for his turn.

Check your answers!

Great job!

5. Mary apologizes and Louise forgives her.

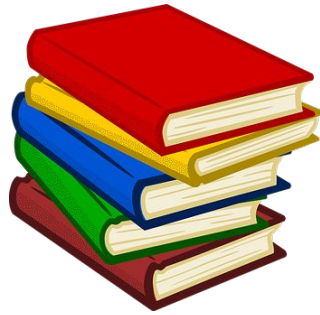

6. Sam shares his books with his siblings.

7. Terry takes Mike's car without asking for permission.

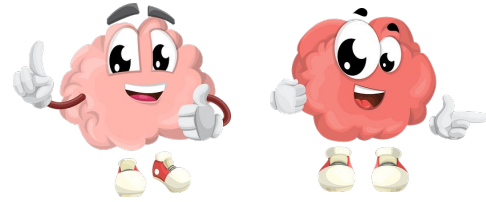

8. Bob cuts the line and does not wait for his turn.

Manners: Reading

Good Manners

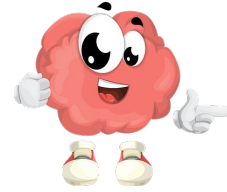

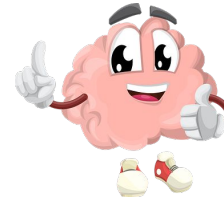

When you have good manners, you are showing respect to others and making them feel valued. One way to have good manners is by saying "please" when you ask for something and "thank you" when you get it. This shows you appreciate what someone does for you.

Another part of good manners is being polite and treating people with kindness. For example, holding the door open for someone or saying "excuse me" when you need to get past them. This shows that you care about their feelings.

It is polite to listen when others are talking and to not interrupt them. It is important to wait your turn to speak and to be patient. Having good manners can even help you make new friends. People enjoy being around someone who is polite and respectful.

Good Manners: True or False?

One way to have good manners is to take things without asking.

or

It is good manners to hold the door open for someone.

or

Having good manners can help you make new friends.

or

Check your answers!

One way to have good manners is to take things without asking.

It is good manners to hold the door open for someone.

Having good manners can help you make new friends.

Manners Around the World

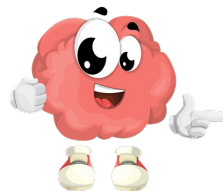

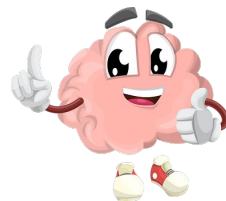

Manners are important all around the world. They can be different depending on where you are. In some cultures, it is polite to bow when you meet someone instead of shaking hands. This shows respect in places like Japan.

In other cultures, like in parts of India, it is considered polite to eat with your right hand and not your left hand. In China, it is respectful to use both hands when giving or receiving something, like a gift or money.

In many Middle Eastern cultures, it is polite to take off your shoes before entering someone's home to show respect for their space. In some European countries, people might kiss each other on the cheek when they meet, which shows friendliness and warmth.

Learning about manners in different cultures helps us understand and respect each other's traditions. It is important to be open-minded and willing to learn about manners from around the world.

Manners: True or False?

Manners can be different depending on where you are.

or

In some places, it is polite to take off your shoes at the door.

or

We should avoid learning about manners from other cultures.

or

Check your answers!

Manners can be different depending on where you are.

In some places, it is polite to take off your shoes at the door.

We should avoid learning about manners from other cultures.

Act out the dialogue with a partner!

Dialogue

share

manners

take turns

apologize x2

patient

Fred: Do you try to have good _____?

Ellie: Yes, of course! I always _____ when I make a mistake.

Fred: Me too. Do you _____ your games with others?

Ellie: Yes. It is important to _____ so everyone gets a chance to play.

Fred: I agree. You have to be _____ and wait for your turn.

Ellie: Being patient is hard! Sometimes I complain when I wait.

Fred: Then do you _____ and say that you are sorry?

Ellie: Of course! Let's go play a game now.

Check your answers!

Fred: Do you try to have good manners?

Ellie: Yes, of course! I always apologize when I make a mistake.

Fred: Me too. Do you share your games with others?

Ellie: Yes. It is important to take turns so everyone gets a chance to play.

Fred: I agree. You have to be patient and wait for your turn.

Ellie: Being patient is hard! Sometimes I complain when I wait.

Fred: Then do you apologize and say that you are sorry?

Ellie: Of course! Let's go play a game now.

Games

Describe the picture!

Read and answer the questions!

- a. What can you see in the picture?
- b. What examples of good manners do you see?
- c. Where might the kids take turns?
- d. What things are the kids sharing?
- e. Is there anything they might apologize for?
- f. Are the kids being polite? How do you know?

Check your answers!

Goodbye!
See you next time!

