Mexican celebrations

Like any other country, Mexico has its own celebrations. Some of the most well known festivals are Cinco de Mayo (5th of May) and Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead). People confuse them often, but they are different celebrations.

On Cinco de Mayo, they celebrate Mexican troops' victory against French army. While on the Dia de los Muertos, they celebrate life.

However, you can enjoy traditional food, listen to the mariachi and see people wearing traditional clothing on both occasions.

Let's talk!

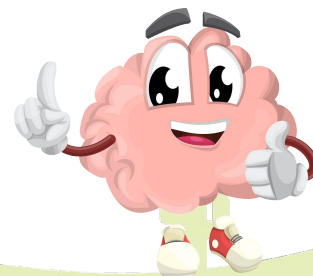

Answer the questions.

Are Cinco de Mayo and Dia de los Muertos the same celebration?

What can you do on both celebrations?

What is celebrated on each occasion?

Let's play!

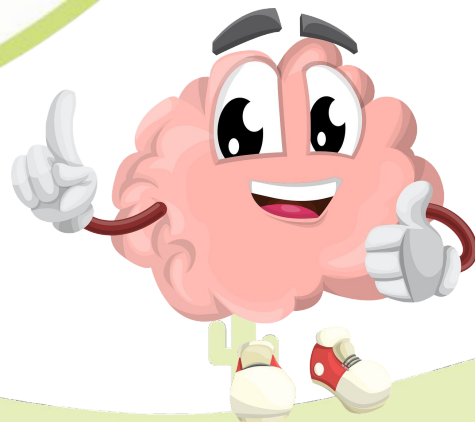

Decorate your sombrero!

Draw a sombrero and decorate it.

you use?

Goodbye!
See you next time!
